Mr Declan Casey

Wedding Photography- A Fresh Approach

Gone are the days of “stiff formal wedding photos” and “formal wedding photographers”. Whilst the traditional images must be captured, the event should not be traumatized, but made as comfortable as possible for all concerned. A good wedding photographer should be as unobtrusive as possible, yet still be able to capture the flavour of this special occasion. Candid shots of your guests are an excellent way to record this. Very often the guest doesn't know they have been photographed!

I provide a range of services from full photographic cover to partial cover of selected sections of your wedding. I believe that on this important day the photographer responsibility to cover the event as you wish. So don't get compromised into making a choice between one fixed packages or another. Always remember, this is your wedding day not the photographers and therefore you are entitled to call the shots.
